

CULTURE AND LINGUA VIVA

A language center since 1976

Linguaviva was founded in Florence in 1976 and established in Geneva in 1994. Our center provides a large range of language and IT classes tailored for our clients specific needs.

Linguaviva is teaching languages in small groups and as private lessons for individuals. All our teachers are well qualified native speakers with decades of teaching experience.

Our courses enables students to gain confidence in their newly acquired language skills and to practice them in casual or business situations.

We also prepare our students for official language certificates.

Linguaviva offers instruction for following languages: French, German, Italian, English, Spanish, Portuguese, Arabic, Chinese, Russian.

Our Business Language program offers special language courses designed for professionals in various fields: banking, finance, legal, medical, hotel industry, etc. Curriculum for these courses can be specifically constructed to meet each customer's unique requirements

The Annual Grant for Continuing Education

Geneva taxpayers and "frontaliers" can benefit of this annual grant of CHF 750.- for language and information technology courses.

TESTIMONIALS

I have been taking French lessons at Linguaviva ever since I arrived in Geneva in autumn of 2001. This has made it a lot easier for me to adapt to daily life here.

Cathlin J. - Chairman JCTraade

Thanks to Russian and Bulgarian lessons at Linguaviva, our communication with our clients has improved and the number of orders have increased.

W.B.H. - Director International Operations

It is extremely difficult for Slaves to learn the French language. Linguaviva teachers' commitment and professionalism helped me to become familiar with Moliers language very quickly.

Larissa L. - Ukraine
